History of Inclusion Advocacy SENB

The Association was initially formed as an advocacy committee in 1984 but in 1987, the advocacy committee incorporated and became the Greater Moncton Association for Community Living. It rebranded in December 2016 as Inclusion Advocacy SENB.

The Association is one of the volunteer associations affiliated with (but not funded by) the NBACL and one of 400 locals across Canada affiliated with the Canadian Association for Community Living. Association members include individuals, family members, professionals, and friends.

The Association works hard to provide appropriate support for people with an intellectual disability to live, learn, work and participate alongside non-handicapped people in their community. Together, we can help everyone develop as respected, valued and contributing members of our communities!
